

When you join the Cariboo Heights Forest Preservation Society, you lend your voice to our efforts to educate and advocate to keep the Cariboo Heights forest wild and protected from development!

Membership perks include social events, nature and historic walks. Our members are automatically members of the Federation of BC Naturalists (BC Nature) and receive its quarterly magazine, BC Nature, (by mail or it can be viewed on BC Nature's website: www.bcnature.ca). BC Nature also sends a monthly e-newsletter letting us know what is happening in BC as well high-lighting information from Nature Canada. BC Nature also provides third-party liability insurance for members who participate in field trips organized by Cariboo Heights Forest Preservation Society, BC Nature or other member clubs.

Membership Types:

- Individual – $20 per year
- Family (1-2 adults and children up to the age of 18) – $25 per year
- Individual or family who already belong(s) to another BC Nature affiliated group (e.g. Burke Mountain Naturalists, Stoney Creek Environment Committee, Nature Vancouver...) - $10 per year
